Healthy French Toast

Our slimmed-down take on this Sunday-morning favorite is practically saintly. Subbing in low-fat milk and egg whites gives it half the fat and a third less cholesterol than traditional French toast. Plus, it's a cinch to whip up. One more blessing in disguise: You can still serve it with maple syrup, which is naturally fat-free.

2 large egg whites

1 large egg
 3/4 cup(s) low-fat (1%) milk
 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract
 Salt
 2 teaspoons margarine or butter
 8 slices firm whole-wheat bread
 Maple syrup (optional)

1. Heat oven to 200 F. In pie plate, with whisk, beat egg whites, egg, milk, vanilla and 1/2 teaspoon salt until blended. In 12-inch nonstick skillet, on medium heat, melt 1 teaspoon margarine.
 2. Dip bread slices, one at a time, in egg mixture, pressing bread lightly to coat both sides well. Place 3 or 4 slices in skillet, and cook 6 to 8 minutes or until lightly browned on both sides.
 3. Transfer French toast to cookie sheet; keep warm in oven. Repeat with remaining margarine, bread slices and egg mixture. Serve French toast with maple syrup and berries or other fruit, if you like. Makes 4 servings.

* Each serving: About 300 calories, 9g total fat (2g saturated), 56mg cholesterol, 755mg sodium, 46g total carbohydrate, 6g dietary fiber, 12g protein.

The Garden Bug

Winter garden tasks

Sharpen and oil tools such as shovels, pruners and shears. Power tools such as weed eaters and lawnmowers need maintenance and cleaning. Could the wheelbarrow use a fresh coat of paint? Begin to think of a strategy for new spring plantings. You might want to create a small map of your garden, and use it as a guide for ordering new plantings. - B. Weaver

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On Feb. 8, 1587, after 19 years of imprisonment, Mary Queen of Scots is beheaded at Fotheringhay Castle in England for her complicity in a plot to murder Queen Elizabeth I. In 1542, while just six days old, Mary had ascended to the Scottish throne upon the death of her father, King James V.

* On Feb. 4, 1913, Rosa Parks is born Rosa Louise McCauley in Tuskegee, Alabama. Parks' name has become synonymous with her refusal to give up her seat to a white man on a segregated bus in 1955.

* On Feb. 6, 1928, a woman calling herself Anastasia Tschaikovsky and claiming to be the youngest daughter of the murdered Russian czar Nicholas II Romanov arrives in New York City. It wasn't until

1994 that Anastasia's DNA showed her to be Franziska Schanzkowska, a Polish-German factory worker.

* On Feb. 5, 1934, Henry Louis Aaron Jr., the baseball slugger who broke Babe Ruth's legendary record of 714 homers, is born in Mobile, Alabama.

* On Feb. 3, 1950, Klaus Fuchs, a German-born British scientist who helped develop the atomic bomb, is arrested in Great Britain for passing top-secret information to the Soviet Union. His arrest led authorities to Julius and Ethel Rosenberg and their subsequent execution.

* On Feb. 9, 1960, Adolph Coors disappears while driving to work from his Morrison, Colorado, home. Adolph, grandson of Coors' founder and the chairman of the Golden, Colorado, brewery, was kidnapped and held for ransom before being shot to death.

* On Feb. 7, 1984, while in orbit 170 miles above Earth, Navy Capt. Bruce McCandless becomes the first human to perform an untethered spacewalk. McCandless flew up to 320 feet away from the space shuttle Challenger while testing a rocket backpack of his own design.

1. What did fans throw at the Beatles during their first U.S. concert?
2. When the Doors were on "The Ed Sullivan Show" in 1967, they were asked to change the lyrics to which song?
3. How much more money does the operator want each time in "Sylvia's Mother"?
4. Who released "The One Who Really Loves You"?
5. Name the song that contains this lyric: "She tunes in to Bandstand every day to watch the kids dancin' 'cross the USA."

Answers

1. Jelly beans. The boys had made the mistake of saying they loved them. Unfortunately they meant the U.K. version of soft jelly babies. The Beatles were on a round stage with no place to hide from the stinging barrage of hard jelly beans.
2. "Light My Fire." But they didn't, claiming they forgot. (The Rolling Stones also caused the show problems with their questionable lyrics.)
3. The operator keeps wanting "Forty cents more for the next three minutes."
4. Mary Wells, in 1962.
5. "Queen of the Hop," by Bobby Darin in 1958. Although written long ago, the song hasn't been forgotten. It was used on the soundtrack to the "Porky's Revenge" film in 1985 and Shakin' Stevens' 1987 "16 Rock 'n' Roll Greats."

Stuffed French Toast

Peanut butter isn't just for kids' lunchboxes anymore! It adds protein and flavor to family meals from breakfast to dinner.

- 2 large eggs
- 1/2 cup milk

- 1/2 cup peanut butter
- 8 slices white bread
- 1 banana, sliced diagonally
- 1 tablespoon margarine or butter

1. In pie plate, with fork, beat eggs and milk. Spread peanut butter on the eight slices of bread. Top 4 slices of bread with banana slices. Top with remaining pieces of bread, to make 4 sandwiches. Dip in egg mixture to coat.

2. In 12-inch nonstick skillet, melt butter on medium. Add sandwiches and cook for 6 minutes, or until golden on both sides. Drizzle with maple syrup. Makes 4 servings.

* Before removing a splinter, ice the area. There will be less fussing, and a wooden splinter might absorb some liquid, causing it to swell enough to pop out a bit more.

* "I used the mileage counter in my car to come up with several 2-mile routes for walking. Now I can vary my routine and be assured that I've walked 2 miles, which is my goal. I just drive from my house until I hit a mile on the trip odometer, and then I walk to that spot and back." -- I.L. in Nevada

* Use a tea infuser ball for aromatherapy. Apply several drops of essential oils to a cotton ball and place it inside the infuser basket. Then simply hang it to distribute the scent. You can hang it from a light bulb or even in front of the air handler for your air conditioning or heating intake.

* "If you're looking to give yourself a bit of traction on icy sidewalks, be careful what you use. While kitty litter is a much-recommended solution, when it melts, you're left with a slippery pile of clay. Salt can de-ice a sidewalk, but it definitely will kill plants, so be precise, and don't use too much of either. I carry a baggie of sand in my bag and keep a small bucket for the steps. It's not perfect, but it works." -- T. in Pennsylvania

* "The knob came off my pot lid because it cracked. I grabbed a wine cork and threaded it on the screw. It stays in place and is never hot when I need to remove the top. Plus it looks cute." -- E.T. in Alabama
